

When Executive Committee met here to-day, then most satisfactory accounts were received from all parts of the State. An electoral college was organized, and the members agreed, settling forth that it is deemed inexpedient, at this time, to nominate a candidate for Governor, appointing a committee to so change or modify the electoral ticket as to secure harmonious action from all national men; also recommending the holding of a mass convention of the friends opposed to the secession, on as early a day after the October election as practicable.

The report that the career of the so-called General Walker has been brought to a sudden and fearful end, is fully confirmed by intelligence just received. He was ~~shot~~ ^{struck} by a bullet by order of the public authorities of Honduras; and his companions, with the exception of Col. Rudler, who was also exempted, were allowed to depart unscathed.

The Distinction.—Remember, voters of Pennsylvania, that the Republicans of Massachusetts, have recently, passed a law, ALLOWING NEGROES to vote on ONE year's naturalization; while they compel an Irishman, or a Scotchman, to remain SEVEN years before he can cast a vote.

THE PEOPLE MOVING!

Rousing Democratic Meetings—
—all Large and Patriotic!

THE WATCH FIRES BURNING BRIGHTLY!

Meeting at J. E. Smith's.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable character of the weather and the bad state of the roads on Monday evening, the Democratic meeting at J. E. Smith's, in Mount Pleasant township, was truly a GRAND RALLY, demonstrating beyond all doubt the earnestness in the feeling in that quarter of the county in the present contest. Not only was the immediate neighborhood largely represented, but there were in attendance delegations from Irishtown, New Oxford and Abbotstown, coming in with martial music, flags and banners, amidst the hearty cheers of all assembled. It was a most stirring occasion.

The meeting was called to order by John Dasher, Sr., Esq., who proposed the following officers. Adopted. We give the names from memory, the list having been mislaid. There may hence be inaccuracies, but we trust not.

President. Wm. H. Lott, Esq.
Vice Presidents. Jacob E. Miller, Joseph J. Smith, John Lynch, J. B. Beck, John Buehler, Jr., Franz Pohlman, John L. Noel, Henry Kuhn, John B. Butler, John Lilly, Esq., Samuel Hill, George Lawrence, J. E. Smith.

Secretaries. M. B. Miller, George F. Kallfelz, Pius Seeringer, Daniel Lawrence.

John Gibson, Esq., and J. W. Bittinger, Esq., of York, Dr. D. S. Peffer, John Buehler, Sr., Esq., and Andrew Dillme, Esq., successively addressed the meeting, and their remarks were received with many demonstrations of enthusiasm. The crowd remained until a late hour, and after a short speech from H. F. Stahle, adjourned with three cheering cheers for the ticket. The right spirit is abroad in that quarter.

To the ladies-acknowledgments are due for the very handsome bouquets presented to the speakers at the conclusion of their several speeches. Nothing could be more encouraging than the interest which our fair friends manifested on the occasion.

Meeting at East Berlin.

Another tremendous outpouring of the Democracy was witnessed, at East Berlin, on Tuesday evening. The people flocked in by hundreds, until Becker's hotel and the streets on two sides of it became a perfect jam. New Oxford, Irishtown and Abbotstown were represented by an immense delegation, accompanied with martial music, whilst flags were flying from nearly all the wagons and smaller vehicles. Of course their entrance into town created the liveliest enthusiasm, and such shouts as went up only came from the lips of ardent Democrats.

A stand had been erected for the purpose, at which the meeting was organized, as follows:

President. George Kivo, Esq.
Vice Presidents. Joseph Woods, Wm. S. Hill, Samuel Schaeffer, John King, Samuel Orndorff, Maj. Wm. Wolf, Michael Alvino, George Baker, Esq., Thomas S. Buehler, Michael Bell, Esq., Samuel Seider, Esq., Francis Marshall, John Rupp, Joseph Altland, Frederick Holt, John Lynch, George Dehnbart, Daniel Becker, John Jacob, W. N. Sanders, John Giesman, George B. Ker, (secretary) Henry Starnum, George Munkhoff, Secretary, Henry L. Miller, Charles F. Kuhn, Solomon Miller, Andrew Hildebrand, A. K. Stoner, George B. Gers, P. Andrew Myers, John Dillme, George Seider.

John W. Bittinger, Esq., John Gibson, Esq., Dr. D. S. Peffer, and Andrew Dillme, Esq., addressed the audience in a most acceptable manner, their sentiments being frequently and warmly applauded. H. F. Stahle also participated in the speaking, and at a late hour an adjournment was had, when hearty cheers were given for the whole ticket. The meeting was one of the most encouraging ever attended, and we therefore look for a good account from that tier of township.

Meeting in Buchanan Valley.

The meeting at Strasburg's School-house, on Wednesday evening, was well attended, nearly every voter in the Valley being present. A warm interest was manifested by all in the proceedings, and throughout there were many manifestations of enthusiasm. The officers of the meeting were:

President. ROBERT REINKE.
Vice Presidents. Francis Will, John Cole, John Brady, Samuel Brady, John Walz, John Stoen, Andrew Noel, John Bar, John I. Thomas.

Secretaries. George C. C. Charles M. Kenrick, Joseph Warner, John McKenrick, John J. Brady, John A. Noel.

Wm. A. Duncan, Esq., was then called out, and he ably and fairly discussed the issues of the canvass, at considerable length. He was followed by H. F. Stahle, at the conclusion of whose remarks the meeting adjourned with three of the loudest kind of cheers for the cause and the ticket.

Meeting at Fairfield.

Notwithstanding the rain and the muddy roads, the meeting at Fairfield on Thursday evening was very large, and the surrounding townships being fully represented. It was a grand turnout of the Democracy of that region. The Band started from this place at 3 o'clock, and with the rich uniforms of the members, the magnificent chariot, drawn by six spirited horses, in the hands of that accomplished reinman, Mr. Charles Weaver, created a real excitement of enthusiasm all along the way. Two miles this side of Fairfield the Band was met by a large delegation of horsemen, under the marshalship of Thomas A. Marshall and Jacob L. Frier, and escorted into town, wagons and other vehicles loaded down with Democrats, there being joining the escort. At a later period in the evening a delegation of six and four-horse wagons, buggies, &c., also escorted the town. A commodious stand, decorated in profusion with the richest of wreaths, was erected on nearly opposite to the hotel, where the meeting was organized as follows, Mr. Robert McKelvey acting as its order.

President. JACOB L. FRIER.

Secretaries. Benj. J. Reed, John W. McConnell, Daniel Beckman, David L. Topper, George W. Weber, Moses Seebrook, Joseph Galusha, Thomas J. Wambacher, Wm. H. Low.

J. C. Neely, Esq., addressed the meeting in a speech of considerable length, speaking up all the issues before the people of this county, and giving them a fair and clear discussion.

His remarks were received with much approbation. H. J. Stahle succeeded him in a short speech, when the meeting adjourned with three cheers for the ticket, three in the band, and three for the Democracy of Hamilton.

The Band are indebted to the ladies of Fairfield and vicinity for the present of a number of splendid wreaths and bouquets, among the richest we ever saw.

Messrs. Jesse P. Topper had their residence, this side of Fairfield, handsomely illuminated, and decorated with numerous wreaths and flowers. We could not but admire their spirit.

Meeting at Littlestown.

The meeting at Littlestown, on Friday evening, was the largest political gathering ever had in that place—acknowledged so by Opposition gentlemen of the highest respectability. The number in attendance was fully four times as large as at the Opposition meeting there a few evenings previous. Large delegations from Mount Pleasant, Conowingo, Oxford, Union and Berwick, came in, with music and banners, creating the wildest enthusiasm. It was a glorious rally. The meeting was organized as follows:

President. ARNOLD LARSEN.
Vice Presidents. Simon S. Bishop, John Morgan, Wm. H. Lott, Elijah Hosen, Abraham Harner, John Rider, Peter Greenleaf, Jacob Kuhn, Wm. Hittner, Thomas Butte, Capt. Thomas Brady, David F. Bair, Jeremiah Ott, George Lawrence, Jacob F. Little, Wm. Dittler, L. Golden, J. E. Smith, Jacob Althoff, Henry Holsner.

Secretaries. Aaron L. Bishop, George W. Stover, Ferdinand Katter, Benjamin Bollinger, Vincent Seeringer, Jacob Myers, Ambrose Kinn, John Buehler, Jr., Wm. Buehler, Esq., John Ritchie, Esq., of Frederick, W. L. Duncan, Esq., J. C. Neely, Esq., Dr. D. S. Peffer, Esq., John Buehler, Esq., in a very acceptable manner, the warm applause of the hearers frequently being given to the speakers. Capt. Stahle's discourse of Black Republican principles was very forcible, whilst his eloquent appeal directly home to the hearts of his hearers, and the remarks of H. J. Stahle, who addressed the meeting, when it adjourned with loud huzzas for the Democracy and the ticket.

ADDRESS

Of the Democratic State Executive Committee of Pennsylvania.

The election of the next Governor of Pennsylvania is close at hand. Its importance to the masses cannot be overrated, and its influence upon the Presidential contest cannot be too highly estimated. In view of these facts, the Democratic State Executive Committee of the State has called attention to all who are attached to the rights of the Democracy in Pennsylvania, and are anxious to maintain in the next general election the Federal Constitution.

The influence of Pennsylvania has always been great and controlling in the political history of the Union. Her people have always been willing to throw themselves into the breach when dangers menace the inheritance derived from their fathers. When perils threaten to overwhelm them, they become a band of brothers, fighting for a common cause. The Democratic Party of Pennsylvania has become a unit in support of Henry D. Baker, the nominee of the Democratic Union. He has been accepted by the Democracy of the State, and their champion. Thousands of loyal and conservative men, scattered throughout the Commonwealth, will aid in swelling his majority in October. The cheer of his success will be the shout of the Democracy throughout the country, and the Republican columns are now beginning to waver before the vigorous charge of the united and enthusiastic Democracy. It is not to every one at all apparent with the history of the time, that the election of Henry D. Baker is the certain defeat of Lincoln and Hamilton in Pennsylvania. It is impossible to disguise the fact that the great battle in the Old Keystone State must be fought in October, and not in November. A fearful responsibility, therefore, rests upon the Democracy of the Commonwealth. The election of a Democratic Governor will insure the defeat of Republicanism in every State in the Union. Its irrepressible force and power will everywhere count the elements of free government, and induce the people to demand the restoration of a solid unit of all their forces in opposition to the greed of those dangerous principles which at this time form the basis of the Republican party.

It is fully to close our eyes to the perils which threaten the Union, and the election of Lincoln and Hamilton, if consummated, must be the production of the most disastrous consequences. The doctrine of the Republican leaders is in direct antagonism to that of the States, without which we cannot hope to preserve the Union and the Constitution. The election of a Republican Governor will be a direct blow to the Union, and will be a direct blow to the Democracy. It is plainly established, when Mr. Seward said, at Rochester, that there was "an irrepressible conflict between opposing and conflicting forces; and that the United States must and will, sooner or later, be divided into two parts, one free and one slave." Lincoln, the President, the President, expressed the same sentiment when he said, in his canvass for the Senate of the United States, that the agitation of slavery "will not cease until a civil war shall have been reached and passed. A civil war, the great American Revolution, will be the result, and it cannot be delayed, and it cannot be avoided, and it cannot be half-slack, and half-fake."

Under local laws, and the Constitution of the United States, fifteen States claim, and are followed by H. J. Stahle, at the conclusion of whose remarks the meeting adjourned with three of the loudest kind of cheers for the cause and the ticket.

Special Notices.

WISTAR'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY.
This remedy has long been cherished by the community for its remarkable efficacy in relieving, healing and curing the most obstinate, painful and long-standing cases of Cough, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Inflammation of the Lungs; while even Consumption itself has yielded to its magic influence when all other means have failed. Its whole history proves that it is the best and most reliable remedy, as a cure for the numerous and dangerous pulmonary affections which prevail all over the land.

THE REV. JACOB SECHLER.

Well known and much respected among the German population of this country, makes the following statement for the benefit of the afflicted:

RAVONA, Pa., Feb. 16, 1853.
Messrs. Seth W. Fowler & Co.,
Dear Sirs:—Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balm of Wild Cherry—I feel it my duty to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my children seemed to be laboring under the hopes of recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balm, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health, and she was able to resume her usual frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. I would, however, caution the public against impositions, because there is a good deal of spurious Wistar's Balm of Wild Cherry in circulation.
